

Free Webinar for ANA History Project

“A SEARCH FOR EASTERN SHAWNEE HISTORY”

WHO: Anyone interested in learning Eastern Shawnee History

WHAT: Webinar on Educational Resource Guide Sohayla Pagano and Carmen Derrick from Ohio History Connection.

WHEN: Wednesday, August 10th @ 12:00 noon (1 p.m. ET/ 10a.m. PT)

WHERE: Any computer with Internet access

WHY: Join the webinar to learn more about the ANA History Project Online Education Resource. Attendees will learn about the development of the resource and how they can use it along with the academic volume and the Eastern Shawnee Tribe of Oklahoma digital collection to explore Eastern Shawnee History.

To join the webinar on August 10th:

- Type in the following URL address:
<http://creativelearningfactory.adobeconnect.com/ana>
- Select the sign in as a guest option and enter your name

The presentation begins at 12:00 noon, but we recommend signing on early. You will be able to sign on as early as 11:30 a.m.

If you have any questions, experience any trouble during the webinar testing steps, or are unable to connect to the live webinar, please email technical support at dl@ohiohistory.org or call 1.800.640.7679 before 11:50 a.m. Once the webinar begins this line will no longer be monitored and you'll need to email technical support.

Contact Michael Lowery at mlowery@estoo.net or (918) 666-5151, ext. 1831 if you have any questions or concerns about this project or webinar.